CURRICULUM

Since 1994 Kalat has promoted research and development of Sicilian territory thanks to:

18 International Archeology Summer Camps in the municipalities of Trapani, Erice, Paceco, Valderice, Alcamo, Naro, Campobello di Licata;

the participation of over 1000 young people from the world; the discovery of over 274 archaeological sites; the mapping of Campobello di Licata's area; GIS of the archaeological chart of the territory with the Department of Archaeology - University of Palermo - and the supervision from the BB.CC.AA. Superintendence of Agrigento;

the publication of a monographic journal "Kokalos" - Dip. Of Archeology, University of Palermo - about research and discoveries carried out in Montagnola della Burrania (TP).

the recovery and enhancement of the ancient park of "Iachinu Fili", a prehistoric necropolis with tombs reused in the Byzantine age, of which an executive development project has been set up in the Triennial Plan of the OO.PP. of the Municipality.

Since 2000, 90 young European volunteers have been welcomed for periods of 2 weeks to 12 months, 50 young people have been sent from the provinces of Agrigento, Trapani and Ragusa, we have been started partnerships with more than 20 foreign countries.

Since 2001 Kalat has been managing the Local Point Eurodesk of Agrigento, network to inform about European Youth Programs.

From 2011 to 2014 Kalat was the leader of the QLT Project, co-funded by “Fondazione con il Sud”, with the partnership of Agrica and Arcidiocesi Consortium - Caritas Agrigento, CNA, Confartigianato, Confcooperative, Agrigento Confindustria and the municipalities of Campobello di Licata and Ravanusa, to increase entrepreneurial skills of young people and improve the attractiveness of the territory.

OVER THE YEARS,
THANKS TO KALAT
IT WAS POSSIBLE TO REALIZE:

3 print publications
on project activities

The organization of 2 archeological schools for children.

Over 50 conferences
and 2 exhibitions
about research carried out.

The approval of the projects:

-ERIX AEQUA Innovative work of the Ministry of Labor.

-ANTICA (Integrated Territorial Analysis of Archeology and Environment), approved by ARPA Sicilia for the experimentation of innovative models for environmental education and training.

-"Ancient Park of Iachinu Filí" awarded within the Informal - Third Sector Project as a new entrepreneurial project that demonstrates immediate employment.

-ARCHEOLODIDA, an Archaeological Educational Center, with three teaching laboratories on the POR Sicily 2000-2007 Measure 2.03

KISS

Kalat International Summer School

In 2017, thanks to Kalat Project and co-financing of the Youth Department, the recovery of a disused municipal school will be completed, KISS (Kalat International Summer School) a permanent center of more than 1000 sqm for animation and youth Cultural tourism in Campobello di Licata (AG).

In the structure, strategic services will be allocated for the animation and youth gathering. Currently, there is not anything like this in the Agrigento area. A strong added value will be the international youth activity attractions.

A group of young people, approximately 15-20 in total, are gathered on a sandy beach. They are dressed in casual summer attire like tank tops, t-shirts, and shorts. Some are standing in the back rows, while others are crouching or sitting on the sand in the front. The background shows a calm sea and a rocky coastline under a clear sky. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent orange filter. A white double-line border frames the central area where the text is located.
